

Hur Hassnain

Hur Hassnain is an evaluation specialist. Currently he works at the European Commission DEVCO's Evaluation Support Service, as Senior Evaluation Advisor based in Brussels, Belgium. Hur is the Founder of Pakistan Evaluation Association and Board Member at the International Development Evaluation Association [IDEAS]. At IDEAS, he co-chairs the Thematic Interest Group (TIG) on Evaluation in Fragility, Conflict and Violence. Hur has extensive experience of working in a variety of thematic areas including but not limited to gender equality, climate change, renewable energy, agriculture, women's economic empowerment, education and protection. He has lived and worked in Asia, Middle East and Africa. He has designed, commissioned and conducted research and evaluations for projects funded by the UN agencies, European Commission, private donors and governments of the UK, Canada, Switzerland, Netherlands and Norway.